President's Message

I hope all of you have had a wonderful Holiday season.

Thank you to everyone who brought food to our Holiday Party. The food was exceptional, as was the company. The show table was amazing and the Auction was great fun too.

AOS judges from the Northeast judging center were present to evaluate orchids brought in for judging. Two of our members, Chuck Andersen and Daryl Yerdon had their orchids awarded that afternoon. What a learning experience it was to watch the process. I am constantly amazed at the scope of knowledge demonstrated by our judges.

I know our Show is a month later this year but, as we have a new venue and have moved the show to a different city, we need to start planning now. Advertising will be very important. We will need everyone's support. I will speak more about this at the meeting.

Joanna Eckstrom will be our January Speaker. In her program "What is my orchid telling me?" She will show us how determine our orchids particular needs by examining them for clues. Come learn how to make your orchids thrive.

See you on January 11th.

Anita
